

ACCJC

Cañada College

Peer Review Visit Team Roster

Monday, September 30 -Thursday, October, 3, 2019

Chair

Dr. Keith Flamer
President/Superintendent
College of the Redwoods

Over the course of his higher education career Dr. Flamer has served in positions as President/Superintendent, Vice President, Executive Dean, Dean, and Director at College of the Redwoods, McHenry County College and Eastern Washington University. This breadth of experience has provided him with expertise in enrollment management, instruction, student development and support services, facilities development and fiscal planning. His experience has also given him insight into the changes needed in institutional policies and programs to meet both short-term and long-range goals. He has served as an adjunct faculty for McHenry County College, College of the Redwoods and Roosevelt University.

Team Assistant

Ms. Johanna Helzer
Administrative Office Coordinator
College of the Redwoods

This will be Ms. Helzer's second time being a Visiting Team Assistant. In her time at College of the Redwoods she has worked in the President's Office as Administrative Assistant and in the Career Education division. Currently she manages their Strong Workforce funding and other Career Education grants.

ACADEMIC REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. Kristina Allende
Professor of English
Mt. San Antonio College

Ms. Allende is a curriculum liaison and has twelve years' experience as Faculty Accreditation Coordinator at Mt. San Antonio College. She has co-led two self-evaluations and served on eight comprehensive peer review teams.

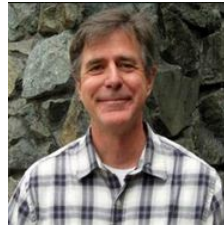

Ms. Cheryl Bailey
Instruction Librarian; SLO
Coordinator Irvine Valley College

Ms. Bailey participated in writing the 2015-16 Irvine Valley College ISER and served as co-chair for Irvine Valley College Online Education Taskforce. This will be her second time participating on an ACCJC peer review team.

Mr. Caleb Fowler
Professor Computer Info. Science;
Business
Folsom Lake College

Mr. Fowler has 25+ yeas in higher education and is currently a department chair. He was a member of a Partnership Resource Team for Los Medanos College.

Dr. Dave Bazard
Dean of Math, Science,
Behavioral and Social Sciences
College of the Redwoods

Dr. David Bazard has taught a variety of earth sciences courses at College of the Redwoods since 1995. David received his Bachelor's degree in Geology from Humboldt State University, worked for four years as a field geophysicist and lab manager, and then later earned a Master of Science in Geology from Western Washington University and a Ph. D. in Geosciences from University of Arizona. Dr. Bazard has served as Academic Senate Co-President, Co-Chaired an Accreditation Steering Committee when responding to "Show Cause" as well as the Assessment and Program Review Committees. He has held numerous high level administrative positions at the community college level.

ADMINISTRATIVE REPRESENTATIVES

Dr. Valerie Barko
Director of Institutional
Effectiveness and University
Center/ALO
Kauai Community College

Dr. Barko has held the title of ALO for two institutions and organized her college team visit in October of 2018. She has extensive experience leading a variety of programs in Career and Technical Education.

Mr. Robert Suppelsa
Vice President Administrative Services
Los Angeles Harbor College

Mr. Suppelsa has a proven record of accomplishments spanning over thirty years. He has a strong background in directing analysis and development of programs and schools for business and financial success in challenging situations for industry leaders.

Dr. Ryan Theule
Vice President, Canyon Country Campus & Grants Development
College of the Canyons

Dr. Ryan Theule serves as Vice President of College of the Canyons' Canyon Country Campus and Grants Development. With 17 years of experience in higher education, Ryan has worked in community college administration since 2007, having previously worked in public relations, student affairs, and administration for law and graduate schools. This will be his fourth ACCJC peer review team experience.