Articulation

Articulation agreements are formal agreements between two institutions. They define how courses completed at one institution can satisfy a subject matter requirement at another college or university for the purposes of admission, transferable units, general education or major preparation.

The articulation process is to ensure that the classes you take at Cañada College will be credited toward your bachelor's degree requirements after you enroll at a university.

+ Types of Articulation Agreements

+ Articulation Agreement with CSU and UC Campuses

+ Course Identification Numbering System - (CID)

+ Articulation Agreement with Private Universities

+ Articulation with Out-of-State Universities

+ Required Specific majors
