Leadership Retreat

As part of Cañada College's annual planning cycle, student, faculty, and classified staff leaders and administrators convene for a Leadership Retreat during the summer in anticipation of the following academic year. Participants represent all of the major constituency groups that are part of the College's participatory governance framework. One of the outcomes of the Retreat is the development of the College's annual strategic plan (Educational Master Plan priority projects) for the following academic year. Invited participants each year include:

- Academic, Classified and Student Senate Leadership
- PBC, EAPC, IPC, and SSPC members for the coming year
- Faculty with college-wide reassigned time responsibilities
- College Council members

2021 (August 11 & 12 via Zoom): Recovery with Equity

As the College continued to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic and deepen its efforts to become an antiracist institution, retreat participants adopted the theme of "Recovery with Equity" and considered guidance and resources from a variety of sources as it developed the 2021-22 Annual Strategic Plan. In May, 2022, the PBC reviewed the Annual Plan Progress Report for 2021-22.

2020 (August 12 & 13 via Zoom)

To address the unique challenges and opportunities presented by the COVID-19 pandemic and the College's renewed focus on anti-racism and social and racial injustice in the wake of the killing of George Floyd on May 25, 2020, Retreat participants developed an draft anti-racist framework for the College and refined strategic priorities for the coming academic year. The agenda and slides used during the 2020 Retreat can be found here; the draft notes are here; and the list of student, faculty, and classified staff leaders and administrators who RSVP'd for the Retreat can be found here.
