| You are given the following visual and you are asked to pick the chart it belongs to. This is a common type of question in most important types of exams. This task is an offshoot from the charts charts which are designed to help you learn about what you might want to know. This is not in respect to education, nor award, but it is a good way to learn and improve your skills. Use the information. |           |             |         |
