District Antiracism Council

Introduction

San Mateo County Community College District's Antiracism Council's goal is to create a culture of equity with a lens of antiracism, radically reimagine how we commit to antiracism and how we can transform the educational experiences of all students, especially hyper-marginalized students.

We have identified three areas of priority; Policy & Procedure; Curriculum and Instruction, and Equal Employment Opportunity. Within the larger Council, there are subgroups dedicated to each of these three areas. Our action plan is coming into focus within the respective subgroups (and as a larger collective). This work does not operate in silos but collaborate with the other antiracist work on our campuses and district.

We invite you to join us in these efforts.

The Antiracism Council and our community have felt the impact of the demise of Tyre Nichols. Please take a moment to read our statement .

Get Involved with our District Antiracism Workgroups

The district antiracism committee is divided into three different workgroups that support our collective antiracism work. Visit the individual workgroup pages to learn more about the purpose, projects, and activities of each workgroup.

Connect with the antiracism leaders at your campus

At each of our colleges and the district, we work to foster inclusive and welcoming environments that disrupt structural barriers and welcome, validate, and celebrate all students, faculty, staff, and administration.
