

AANHPI S.T.A.R. student leaders attended the ARC Learning Institute

Cañada College staff, faculty and AANHPI S.T.A.R. student leaders attended the ARC Learning Institute hosted by Skyline College last Friday. The ARC Learning Institute is a professional development opportunity from the AANAPISI ARC collaborative, which includes Cañada College, College of San Mateo and Skyline College. The ARC Learning Institute included a talk from Dr. Mike Nguyen, Associate Professor of Education at UCLA, who spoke on the theme of “holding the line” and advocacy for Asian American, Native Hawaiian, Pacific Islander Serving Institutions. The Institute also included breakout sessions for student leaders and employees to share ideas, goals and to be in community.

