Professional Development Plan Process

Beginning Fall 2022, the Professional Development Planning Committee launched an effort to update the College Professional Development Plan. The proposed process for this planning effort is described below. The Office of Planning, Research and Institutional Effectiveness will provide staff support as well as research and data support to the process.

Planning Team Roles and Responsibilities

Professional Development Planning Committee (PDPC)

Role: Oversees the planning process and the work of the PD Planning Work Group (described below)

Membership: Professional Development Committee Members 2022-23

Professional Development Planning Work Group:

To ensure the Academic and Classified Senates could help shape and inform this planning process, the following co-chairs will represent their campus constituency as Planning Leads on the PD Planning Work Group:

- ASLT Division Dean: Anniqua Rana
- Faculty Rep: Ellen Young
- Classified Rep: Roslind Young

Responsibility:

Draft the new Plan based on the Educational Master Plan and Strategic Enrollment Management Plan, using the PBC approved plan template. Solicit and incorporate feedback from college participatory governance groups.

Planning Timeline (Spring 2024)

Following the discussions from Spring and Fall 2023, the committee will finalize the plan and share it with PBC by the April 2024.
