The purpose of the Budget Break is to create a space for open conversations and discussions about anything related to the college budget or operations. Examples of discussion topics could include:

- How the college budget is developed
- How the resource allocation model works
- Ideas for improving program review resource requests
- Football (NFL) just for fun
- Suggestions for strengthening transparency
- Where to find resources and support for budgeting
- Ideas for training or workshops
- Why do we even need a budget???
