Presenters

Debbie Weatherly

Debbie serves on the Executive Board of the California Community Colleges Classified Senate (4CS) as the Bay 2 Representative. She is the Classified Senate President at Santa Rosa College and has worked in the Accounting office since ..... For more information about 4CS log onto www.cccs.org.

Ben Dineen

Ben began his studies of yoga in 1996 with his primary teacher and mentor, Ben Thomas. In addition to his practice of yoga, Ben has been engaged in the practice and study of taiji and qigong since 1999. Ben is most interested in what is here, allowing life to unfold naturally, it is this wakeful presence which guides his teaching. For more information visit www.wakefulway.com.

Doug Hirzel

Doug teaches human anatomy and physiology courses at Cañada and currently serves as the Academic Senate Governing Council President. In his classes he uses analogies, examples, and storytelling to make complex body processes more easily understandable and memorable. He encourages students to become advocates for health-related issues.

Danni Redding-Lapuz

Danni serves as the Project Director of Cañada College's STEM Center and has worked in the Science & Technology Division since 2008. Before coming to Cañada, Danni worked as a Development Director for VIA-Volunteers in Asia at Stanford University, as well as teaching music at Mills College, Foothill College, National Hispanic University, and Skyline College. Danni is also a musician in Pusaka Sunda, an Indonesian Gamelan Ensemble.
