

ADVISORY BOARD

The Human Services Advisory Board is comprised of working professionals from a wide range of agencies. These agency representatives give feedback, promote the program, and offer opportunities for internships and potential employment. Currently serving on the Board:

- Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse (CORA)
- City of Redwood City Human Services
- Nuestra Casa
- Employment Development Department (EDD)
- County of San Mateo Children & Family Services
- Sequioa Hospital/Dignity Health
- San Mateo County Peninsula Works
- El Concilio of San Mateo County
- HIP Housing (Human Investment Project)
- Job Train
- Ravenswood Family Health Center
- Sutter Health Retired & Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP)
- Redwood City Fair Oaks Community Center (FOCC)

“I started with El Concilio as a volunteer in the area of physical activity in the same year I started my studies in the area of Human Services where I earned a Family Development Certificate from Cañada College. I love having direct contact with people, helping families to stabilize their lives by helping them realize that they have the potential to succeed and guide them to the resources they can access and most of all give them hope.”

-Silvia Flores, Program Manager, El Concilio
