A lengthy discussion occurred on the proposed makeup of the CPC and whether it needs to be representational. A vote was taken where 5 members agreed that they could support the recommendation completely and one member saying that he could support the recommendation with reservations. It
II. Nomination of College Planning Council Co-Chairs

was noted that if the CPC should become unbalanced by any constituent group, the Council would go back and look at its structure.

Council members further agreed that the CPC composition would be reassessed in one year. By-Laws also need to be reviewed along with what it expected from those serving on this Council.

Suggested that nominations for the CPC Co-Chairs occur at the next meeting with the new body. The IPC and SSPC need to have their CPC representatives identified and present at the next CPC meeting.

III. Accreditation Follow-Up Report

Reported that 26 emails were received regarding feedback on the Accreditation Follow-Up report draft mostly having to do with grammar and one directed at the District. Recognized for their involvement on the Accreditation Follow-Up report were Gregory Stoup, Peter Barbatis, Carol Rhodes, and Lisa Palmer.

The Instruction Planning Council will be meeting tomorrow to give their final input on the document. Pending the consensus of the Instruction Planning Council, all CPC members agreed to send this document forward to our Board of Trustees for their approval and then on to ACCJC. The report will go for approval to our Board of Trustees on October 14th and is due to ACCJC on October 15th.

IV. Educational Master Plan Assessment & Review (pages 115-127)

Reported that the College Planning Council is the campus body mandated to review our Educational Master Plan every year. A conversation was started at the CPC Retreat regarding the vision for our College.

It was noted that we need to:
  • Take a closer look at the goals for the College revisiting the four goals that emerged from College Council
  • Have a discussion on underlying assumptions and set up an appropriate assessment
  • Look at how to structure Goal 4 with our Basic Skills agenda in success in getting where they want to go
