The Olive Branch Essay Contest

The Olive Branch is Cañada College’s bi-weekly international student newsletter. It provides students with important information about academics resources, immigration reminders, and activities around campus.

The olive branch is a symbol of peace and abundance and we hope that this newsletter will keep international students connected to the Cañada family. If you have any comments, ideas or would like to contribute, please contact Supinda at sirihekaphongs@smccd.edu.

Guidelines:

We want to hear your story about what it’s like to be an international student. Write about your experience transitioning to the U.S. and Cañada College. Maybe your story is funny, a coming-of-age story, a story of struggle to triumph, whatever your story, we want to learn from your story and hopefully build a stronger community of international students who support each other, inspire each other and learn from each other.

Eligibility requirements:

Cañada College international students maintaining F-1 student status and any student enrolled in an ESL class at Cañada College are eligible to participate.

Essay guidelines:

Essays should be approximately 500 words and will be judged on 1) grammar and 2) originality and creativity. Essays must be emailed to caninternational@smccd.edu by the semester DROP deadline.

Essays will be selected by a committee that includes an International Student Ambassador, an ESL/English Professor and an International Student Center staff.

Prizes:

The top three winners will receive a SMCCD Bookstore Voucher; 1st place $50, 2nd place $30, 3rd place $10, generously donated by the Cañada College Bookstore and Jing Luan, Vice Chancellor of Educational Services, SMCCD. All winners will also receive a certificate. Winning essays will also be published in the final issue.
