BLAKCS & JEWS

The faultline between Blacks and Jews is one of the most visible symbols of America's racial divide. This film, made collaboratively by Jewish and Black filmmakers, goes behind the headlines and the rhetoric to try to heal the misunderstanding and mistrust. Blacks & Jews was acclaimed at the Sundance Film Festival for initiating a frank yet constructive nationwide dialogue between these two traditional allies.

MURAL DOCUMENTARY SCREENING OF "TOWN DESTROYER"

On March 7th the Library welcomed Bay Area filmmakers Alan Snitow and Deborah Kaufman to Cañada College for a screening of their new documentary, "Town Destroyer" about controversy over the WPA era murals at George Washington High School.

About 30 students, staff, faculty, and members of the community enjoyed an insightful Q&A with the filmmakers afterwards.

We'd like to thank everyone who attended and Denise Erickson, Associated Students, PTK, Human Behavior & Culture, Art, Design & Performance, and the Cañada College Mural Committee for helping make this event such a success!
