Stream a Scary Movie Through the Library

Get Out

Jordan Peele's modern classic: A young African-American visits his white girlfriend's parents for the weekend, where his simmering uneasiness about their reception of him eventually reaches a boiling point.

The Lodge

From the writers/directors of Goodnight, Mommy: A soon-to-be stepmom is snowed in with her fiancé's two children at a remote holiday village. Just as relations begin to thaw between the trio, some strange and frightening events take place.

What We Do in the Shadows

Taika Waititi's and Jemaine Clement's 2014 version: Vampires struggle with the mundane aspects of modern life, like paying rent, keeping up with the chore wheel, trying to get into nightclubs, and overcoming flatmate conflicts.

Nosferatu

This German Expressionist take on Bram Stoker's Dracula is a silent movie-era classic, and has influenced film and horror for generations.

"According to our Statista database, "The Unholy" was the highest grossing horror movie at North American box offices in 2021. How many of the Top 10 have you seen? Click here to find out!"
LATINX HERITAGE MONTH

Books and eBooks

A poignant but often laugh-out-loud funny contemporary YA about losing a sister and finding yourself amid the pressures, expectations, and stereotypes of growing up in a Mexican-American home.

Within queer, transgender, and Latinx and Chicanx cultural politics, brown transgender narratives are frequently silenced and erased. Restoring personhood and agency to these subjects, Galarte advances “brown trans figuration” as a theoretical framework to describe how transness and brownness coexist within the larger queer, trans, and Latinx historical experiences.

An isolated mansion. A chillingly charismatic aristocrat. And a brave socialite drawn to expose their treacherous secrets... a terrifying twist on classic gothic horror.

In this inspirational and unflinchingly honest memoir, acclaimed author Reyna Grande describes her childhood torn between the United States and Mexico, and shines a light on the experiences, fears, and hopes of those who choose to make the harrowing journey across the border.

Films and Documentaries

Latino Americans is the first major documentary series for television to chronicle the rich and varied history and experiences of Latinos, who have helped shape North America over the last 500-plus years and have become, with more than 50 million people, the largest minority group in the U.S.

When barrio leader Henry Reyna and his friends are unjustly convicted on circumstantial evidence, activist lawyers Alice Bloomfield and George Shearer fight the blatant racially motivated miscarriage of justice to win them their freedom.

Oct 11th is International Day of the Girl

October 11th commemorates the 10th anniversary of the International Day of the Girl (IDG), which "focuses attention on the need to address the challenges girls face and to promote girls’ empowerment and the fulfilment of their human rights." – United Nations

According to the UN:

- Up to 10 million girls will be at risk of child marriage
- The global internet user gender gap is growing, from 11 per cent in 2013 to 17 per cent in 2019
- The percentage of females among STEM graduates is below 15 per cent in over two-thirds of countries

Learn more about women's rights issues, female empowerment, and female education from our Opposing Viewpoints database, which collects news and magazine articles, video and audio clips, images, and all kinds of other info relevant to cultural issues and research.

International Women's Day is celebrated on March 8th
LitQuake: San Francisco's annual literary festival (if you're not so into the Spooky)

Litquake 2020 runs from October 6 - 22, and features readings, discussions, film screenings, and themed events throughout the Bay Area, almost all of which are free.

Browse the 2022 schedule of over 55 events here.

You'll be surprised by the variety!

Lit Crawl is San Francisco's most anticipated literary night of the year, "a massive, one-night literary pub crawl [minors can attend many events] throughout the city's Mission District."

It features more than 500 authors and close to 10,000 spectators, and is "smart and silly, worldly and wacky, with events presented in venues usual (bars, cafes, galleries, and bookstores) and unusual (police stations, tattoo parlors, barbershops, and laundromats).

Lit Crawl takes place October 22nd, from 5 - 9 pm. Find more info here!
