Cañada College at Fiestas Patrias

On September 15, Redwood City hosted its Fiestas Patrias event. This annual celebration is a commemoration of Independence Day for various Latin American countries, including México. Cañada College was strongly-represented by College Recruiter Mayra Arellano and our Student Ambassadors. Our team met with local families and prospective students to share about the benefits of joining our Colts familia. Cañada College ESL Faculty and Redwood City Council member Alicia Aguirre was also present at the event; both Alicia and Mayra are members of the Latino Leadership Council that helped to organize the event. Vice President of Student Services Manuel Alejandro Pérez joined the Outreach team for the celebration. VP Pérez met and built bridges with Sarahi

Espinoza Salamanca, founder and CEO of DREAMer's Roadmap, an app that connects undocumented students to financial support for higher ed. The team also met the Cónsul General of the Mexican Consulate in San Francisco, Remedios Gómez Arnau, as well as Redwood City Mayor Ian Bain. Overall, Fiestas Patrias was a huge hit!
