

Weekly Update 11-6-20

Dear Campus Community,

Students Serve Community at Emergency Food Drive

Associated Students of Cañada College joined Cañada College President Moore, Vice Chancellor Bauer, Cañada College SparkPoint Director Adolfo Leiva and recent Cañada College retiree Margie Carrington at the SMCCCD Emergency Food Distribution at College of San Mateo on Friday, October 30. The group served 800 families and the Cañada students took a lane loading boxes of food into the trunks of needy families. SMCCCD offers Emergency Food Distributions at College of San Mateo every Friday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and Skyline College every Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Learn more about the food distributions here.

Cañada College Serves its Underserved Communities

Cañada College is proud to provide enriching and life changing educational opportunities for the residents of San Mateo County, which includes our underserved community. In support of our students and the wonderful successes they have achieved while at Cañada, the College has compiled stories and created a webpage dedicated to sharing stories of students who exemplify success. If you have a recommended student(s) to feature, please send your recommendation to canmarketing@smccd.edu

Latino Thought Makers Featuring Mexican American bilingual actress Katie Barberi:
November 12 from 3:30-5 p.m.

Please join us for our next Latino Thought Maker's event on Thursday, November 12 from 3:30-5 p.m. Latino Thought Makers is a platform that provides a respectful and inclusive safe-space for educational discussions about all social, racial, and cultural issues with knowledgeable and highly-esteemed guest speakers. The featured guest is Mexican American bilingual actress Katie Barberi. Barberi is notably one of the most recognizable telenovela stars of her time. Latino Thought Makers is and has been at the forefront of social progress for America's Latino community since 2014. By teaching, inspiring, and presenting a new perspective on Latinos and other minorities, Latino Thought Makers aims to shine light on the Latino community's strength as part of the solution. The flyer is attached and you can register for the event at: <https://tinyurl.com/LTM1112>

SafeZone Training: November 13 from 12-4 p.m.

The first virtual SafeZone training is one week away, and the amount of spaces available are shrinking! If you’ve wondered how to create inclusive and welcoming virtual environments for students who identify as LGBTQIA+, or would simply like to learn more about the community, join us! We will cover LGBTQIA+ identities, gender and sexuality, and examine prejudice, assumptions, and privilege. This training is open to all SMCCCD employees and you will need to RSVP to attend. Please submit this form by Thursday November 12 at 9 a.m. to attend: <https://tinyurl.com/CanSafeZone> Note: You will be asked to enable your camera through zoom for certain portions of the training. If you would like technical support before the training or to ask further questions, please contact Gonzalo Arrizon at arrizong@smccd.edu
