Participatory Governance Orientation

On Friday, September 11, from 1 – 2:30 p.m., the PBC will be hosting a Participatory Governance Orientation via this Zoom link. All are welcome to attend and learn more about how participatory governance works at Cañada College – including changes to the role and reporting structure of committees made by PBC last year. New members of PBC, IPC, SSPC, and the co-chairs of all college-wide committees are required to attend. Please contact Dean Karen Engel for more information.

Enrollment Update

- This week, the PBC reviewed this report regarding Cañada's enrollment trends. Enrollment, student success and equity information is also available via PRIE's data dashboards.
- Information about Cañada's class size trends is also available on the PRIE website and was part of a larger analysis shared with the participants in the summer Leadership Retreat \(slides 35-49\).

Anti-Racism at Cañada College

This week, the Planning and Budgeting Council (PBC) considered a draft Anti-Racism Framework prepared following the College's three Critical Conversations on Race, the Leadership Retreat, and Flex Day discussions. The draft Framework is attached to this Update and is open for discussion and feedback. The PBC considered recommendations for creating an Anti-Racism Task Force and asking all campus groups to consider applying the Framework. Opportunities to join discussions on the Framework include:

- Consider submitting written feedback online via this Online Feedback Form
- Join a college-wide conversation hosted by PBC this Friday, September 4, 2020 from 1:30 – 3:00 p.m. via this Zoom Link
- Participate in participatory governance Council (PBC, IPC, SSPC), Senate, or Committee meetings where it will be discussed

Annual Plan proposed to PBC

In keeping with the College's annual planning cycle, the PRIE Office presented a draft Annual \(operational\) Plan that synthesizes priority initiatives selected from the Ed. Master Plan with those of other college plans (Strategic Enrollment Management, Guided Pathways) along with input received from campus constituents participating in this year's Leadership Retreat. This Annual Plan remains in draft form and will be considered again by PBC in its future meetings.

Program Review

Due to the College's transition to remote operations, there will be no comprehensive program reviews conducted this year. For programs requesting resources this year, an Annual Update will be required - tentatively due in mid-October (pending IPC's approval on 9/18). Please check the Program Review website after September 18 for the finalized format and deadlines.

Labor Day

In Honor of Labor Day, our campus will close for a declared recess beginning Saturday, Sept. 5 and reopen on Tuesday, Sept. 8.

Please stay safe, stay healthy, stay strong.

Sincerely,
Jamillah Moore, Ed.D.
President
