

Cañada Launches Community Partnership Alumni Video Series

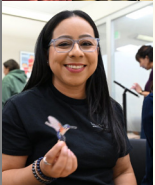

Cañada College proudly debuts its Community Partnership Alumni Video Series, inspired by an idea from a community partner during the President's Advisory Council meeting. The series highlights six alumni who leveraged community resources and local opportunities to create meaningful change. Viewers see the power of collaboration between Cañada College and its partners - Pal Center, Boys & Girls Clubs of the Peninsula, Upward Scholars and Redwood City Together. The series celebrates the impact of education, connection and purpose and can be viewed on Cañada's YouTube channel.
