

Highlights

Cañada College welcomed renowned muralist Juana Alicia as she shared insights on art, activism and storytelling's power to inspire social change and cultural pride.

Cañada College greeted 81 students from Woodside High School and Menlo-Atherton High School for an engaging campus visit highlighting programs, services and the Fashion Design Lab.

The annual Health & Wellness Fair offered free screenings, flu shots and resources promoting physical and mental health, reinforcing the College's commitment to prevention and community well-being.

Associated Students hosted a festive Halloween celebration with free food, games, club booths, costumes and raffles, bringing students and employees together for a fun, spirited campus event.

Día de los Muertos Celebration Honors Culture, Memory and Community

Cañada College honored Día de los Muertos with a day of reflection, creativity and community. In the morning "Calaveras & Flores" event invited students and staff to craft skulls and flowers, contribute to the campus altar and enjoy pan dulce, coffee and tea. In the evening, Casa Círculo Cultural presented a moving performance of dance, music and storytelling, joined by remarks from campus leaders and students. Together, both events celebrated memory, culture and connection while honoring loved ones in a vibrant, welcoming space.

PTK Fall Leadership Conference Inspires Student Growth and Connection

Cañada College's Phi Theta Kappa Chapter co-hosted the Fall Leadership Conference, uniting students from California and Nevada to explore leadership, transfer and scholarship opportunities while highlighting this year's theme, "The Power of Stories."
