

Highlights

- The Cultural Center and its partners hosted a Loy Krathong celebration - Thailand's Festival of Lights - where participants created krathongs, learned about the festival's significance, enjoyed Thai food and celebrated themes of reflection, gratitude and hope.
- Cañada's Outreach, Promise and Counseling teams presented at Noche de Información for the Sequoia Union High School District, engaging 40+ seniors and families in learning about college opportunities, sparking conversations and excitement.
- Honors Transfer Program students Rolando Barriga-Rojas, Blake Mathews and Haolin Pang presented research at national and state conferences, showcasing their projects.
- The Womxn of Color Collaborative hosted artist Ahmad Walker for a hands-on sculpture workshop, where participants learned sculpting basics and reflected on personal growth.
- Puente's Noche de Familia welcomed students and their families to learn about campus support services, explore the vital role of family in student success and enjoy a game of Puente Lotería.

Annual High School Counselors & Community Partner Forum

Cañada recently hosted its 9th Annual High School Counselors & Community Partner Forum, where more than 80 partners gathered for a dynamic morning of connection, collaboration and updates on the College. The event highlighted upcoming initiatives, featured an engaging student panel as a key highlight of the day and offered opportunities to strengthen partnerships throughout the year. Attendees also selected from a variety of workshops to learn more about Cañada's student support services, programs and campus resources.

Student Exhibition Opens at the Cañada Art Gallery
