

Highlights

- Ruby Ibarra and the Balibkayan opened AANHPI Heritage Month with inspiring talks and performances. Check for more AANHPI Heritage Month events throughout May.
- The Cañada College Art Gallery presents Strange / Familiar, a solo exhibition by Wardell McNeal featuring layered figurative paintings, on view through May 14.
- ASCC Student Senators joined peers from across California in Washington, D.C., advocating for change through direct engagement with members of Congress.
- Cañada College celebrated Holi with music, dance workshops and traditional colored powders, creating a vibrant atmosphere of joy and cultural connection.
- The Disability Resource Center marked the opening of its new suite in Building 9, reaffirming the College's commitment to ensuring equitable access to education.

Beta Zeta Nu Shines on the International Stage with Multiple High-Level Honors

Cañada College's Phi Theta Kappa chapter, Beta Zeta Nu, earned prestigious recognition at the PTK Catalyst Convention, ranking among the top 100 chapters worldwide. The chapter received the Beta Alpha Continued Excellence Award and was honored for its scholarly research project "The Way Stories are Told." Advisors Paul Roscelli and Autumn McMahon, along with Vice President of Instruction, Dr. Chialin Hsieh, received leadership awards. In addition to these achievements, students participated in an exclusive White House tour hosted by alumna Lindsay Moore, highlighting the program's incredible impact.

Beyond the Rack: Cañada Fashion Students Explore Global Industry Hub

Fashion students gained valuable insights into design, sustainability and production during an intensive two-day industry immersion in Los Angeles.

Upcoming Events

Wardell McNeal Strange/Familiar

Art Gallery Hours: Monday–Thursday,
1 p.m.–5 p.m. (to May 14)
Building 9, Room 152, Art Gallery

Career Cafe

Tuesday, April 28, 11 a.m.–1 p.m. Monthly
(to Apr 28) The Grove (Building 5)

AANHPI Affinity Gathering & Cultural Open Mic

Wednesday, April 29, 12 p.m.–2:30 p.m.
Building 6, Rooms 101/102

Interest Area Speaker Series

Wednesday, April 29, 4:30 p.m.–6 p.m.
Building 9, Room 154

Making Every Dollar Count

Thursday, April 30, 12 p.m.–1 p.m.
Building 18, Room 115

A Dagger of the Mind: An Hour with Macbeth!

Thursday, April 30, 12:45 p.m.
Flex Theater, Building 3, Room 129

Lavender Graduation

Friday, May 1, 11:30 a.m.–1 p.m.
Building 23, Rooftop

Super PEP Registration

Tuesday, May 5, 9 a.m.–3 p.m.
Building 9, Room 106

View Upcoming Events