Land and Labor Acknowledgement	Jeremy
--------------------------------	--------	--	--

We acknowledge that Cañada College is situated on the traditional unceded land of the Ramaytush (Rah-my-toosh) Ohlone (Oh-LOW-nee) peoples, and we respect our past elders and honor the present community. Long before Cañada College existed, this area was home to the Ramaytush Ohlone peoples, who still have a presence in the Bay Area today. We have a responsibility to acknowledge that we as a Cañada community have benefited from the use and occupation of this land and that the tragic legacy of colonization, genocide, capitalism, racism, and oppression still impacts people today. We also recognize the labor upon which this educational institution, state, and country is built. We acknowledge the peoples of African ancestry who were enslaved and forcibly brought to this land, and whose forced labor played a major role in the formation of this country. We are indebted to their uncompensated labor and their unwilling sacrifice over hundreds of years—which continues to impact generations today. We honor the legacy of the African diaspora and the continued contribution of their survivors. We acknowledge the contributions of all immigrant labor, forced labor, and undocumented people who contributed, and continue to contribute, to the building and feeding of this land. We acknowledge their immeasurable sacrifices and work that allow us to gather in this space today. Let us not forget. Let us honor and engage with the people who have stewarded and labored on this land for generations, and let us honor these truths—by taking responsibility as a college community to continually educate ourselves about these realities, to affirm our commitment to justice through continual action, and to protect and sustain this land.

Alexis talked with Shanda and agreed on funding Lavendar's graduation and leaving remianing funds with the cultural center. Professor Hoffman also asked for funding for an event, of which Alexis shared details through his email. The documentary "Earth's Greatest Enemy." Previously screened at Berkeley, Hoffman used his connection with the documentary's producer to obtain screening rights for free. Any money dedicated to this event is considered a donation to the producer team behind the documentary.

Directory Draft	Nisha Rao	10
Directory Draft was talked about last friday. where we could have different resources, and different groups of students. Would need to be updated yearly, in order to maintain active resources. Wants to have a place where all the resources can be in one section that could be around campus to make things more accessible. Delvin asks if there are any resoruces for student clubs. Nisha shares that Clubs were really thought of as it was more for students who are impacted. Alexis shares that it would likely fall under the shoulder of the next senate as at the time we likely wont have the time.
Office of Equity and Wellness Name Change, Conflict with Cultural Center	Will Tseng	10
Will brought up a message from the Cultural Center about potential naming confusion with two similar offices named Equity. Aarya suggested the Office of Equality, Alexis suggested the Office of Student Impact. Dean Hartman suggested keeping the word "Equity" in the name of the Office, instead, suggesting that we put Student Senate preceding Office of Student Advocacy on all marketing materials to avoid confusion. Nisha suggested substituting the word Office for "Collaborative."
