Land and Labor Acknowledgement	Shanda	3
We acknowledge that Cañada College is situated on the traditional unceded land of the Ramaytush (Rah-my-toosh) Ohlone (Oh-LOW-nee) peoples, and we respect our past elders and honor the present community. Long before Cañada College existed, this area was home to the Ramaytush Ohlone peoples, who still have a presence in the Bay Area today. We have a responsibility to acknowledge that we as a Cañada community have benefited from the use and occupation of this land and that the tragic legacy of colonization, genocide, capitalism, racism, and oppression still impacts people today. We also recognize the labor upon which this educational institution, state, and country is built. We acknowledge the peoples of African ancestry who were enslaved and forcibly brought to this land, and whose forced labor played a major role in the formation of this country. We are indebted to their uncompensated labor and their unwilling sacrifice over hundreds of years—which continues to impact generations today. We honor the legacy of the African diaspora and the continued contribution of their survivors. We acknowledge the contributions of all immigrant labor, forced labor, and undocumented people who contributed, and continue to contribute, to the building and feeding of this land. We acknowledge their immeasurable sacrifices and work that allow us to gather in this space today. Let us not forget. Let us honor and engage with the people who have stewarded and labored on this land for generations, and let us honor these truths—by taking responsibility as a college community to continually educate ourselves about these realities, to affirm our commitment to justice through continual action, and to protect and sustain this land.

Shanda proposes to combine the current office of equity with the office of advocacy to make the "equity and advocacy collective." Sergio shares that he likes the word "Collective." Sergio shared the price breakdown for the conference and showed calculations for 14 people attending. Sergio brought up if we should vote to make this conference open to any SMCCD student; Alexis shared there was a group of students who expressed interest in joining ASCC and have already signed field trip forms, but they are not able to come to the retreat because they are currently not on Senate. ASCC Logo Design	Sierra Orduna	10
Sierra shared we are trying to find a new updated logo for ASCC because of its inessessibility issues. Sierra shared that the design Ziarra submitted may not work on pens, smaller objects, because it would look muddled. Shanda shared that the top designs already look like the basketball team's logo, which would confuse us with them. It needs to be a new logo that complies with marketing guideliness, but Shanda shared that the current logo does not represent herself and our community. Shanda says we can get it approved as a graphic design. Shanda brought up that this should have only been open to ASCC members, not to the whole school. Shanda moves to add five minutes. Kharitias seconds. This motion passess with all votes in favor. We discussed using Ziara's design and making some modifications to it so that it is more accessible. Chanel brought up she was confused why the district/college is having a say on the logo and how it must conform to marketing guidelines. Dean Hartman shared that there has to be web-accessibility requirements to people with reading challenges and suggested us to reach back out to marketing for specific feedback. Amari Williams gives an introduction. Kharitas was wondering what is a challenge Amari has noticed on campus. A challenge Amari brought up is transportation and money for food and shared she would participate on ASCC to help those students. Sierra asked if Amari had any specific ideas for helping the campus. Amari shared that DEIJB means community and knowledge and being the voice of the campus, helping at events, and voicing student concerns. Shanda shares she is very active in our community and asks what made Amari want to join senate. Amari shared she was here since 2024 Summer and wasn't involved, but last semester, she had more involvement and she is a problem-solver and she knows many friends who do not have cars so she wished she could help them. Alexis asked: If you were to reccieve some sort of constructive criticism, how would you handle that? Amari shared she would take the feedback into consideration and share her own feeback. Alexis also asked: Where do you see yourself, and what role specifically? We suggested Amari be the commissioner of publicity. As for events, Amari wants to see black history month look different and bring in HBU pride, culture. Kharitas shared she admires her consistency and honesty. Shanda wants her on senate because she has a voice and is super involved in canvas, and thinks she would be a great fit on Student and involved in the Umoja program, we need voices for the people who are afraid to speak up.
