Case Scenario

Sally is transferring to SFSU, and completed an Associate degree. On application, she needs to declare her status.

Which one of the following answers will apply to her:

- ☐ Associate Degree for Transfer
- ☐ Transfer with junior status

You will find the answer through the following slides.

Types of Associate Degree

✓ Associate Degree

- In Arts (AA)
- In Sciences

✓ Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT)

- In Arts (AAT)
- In Sciences (AST)

Certificate

Course requirements in a field of study only

Major
Course requirements

- Unit requirements for each Certificate is different
- Some programs may have several Certificates such as Interior Design
- 50% of major requirements must be completed at Cañada

Meet with a counselor to discuss your eligibility

Associate Degree

Associate Degree = major courses + General Education + electives (Graduation requirements)

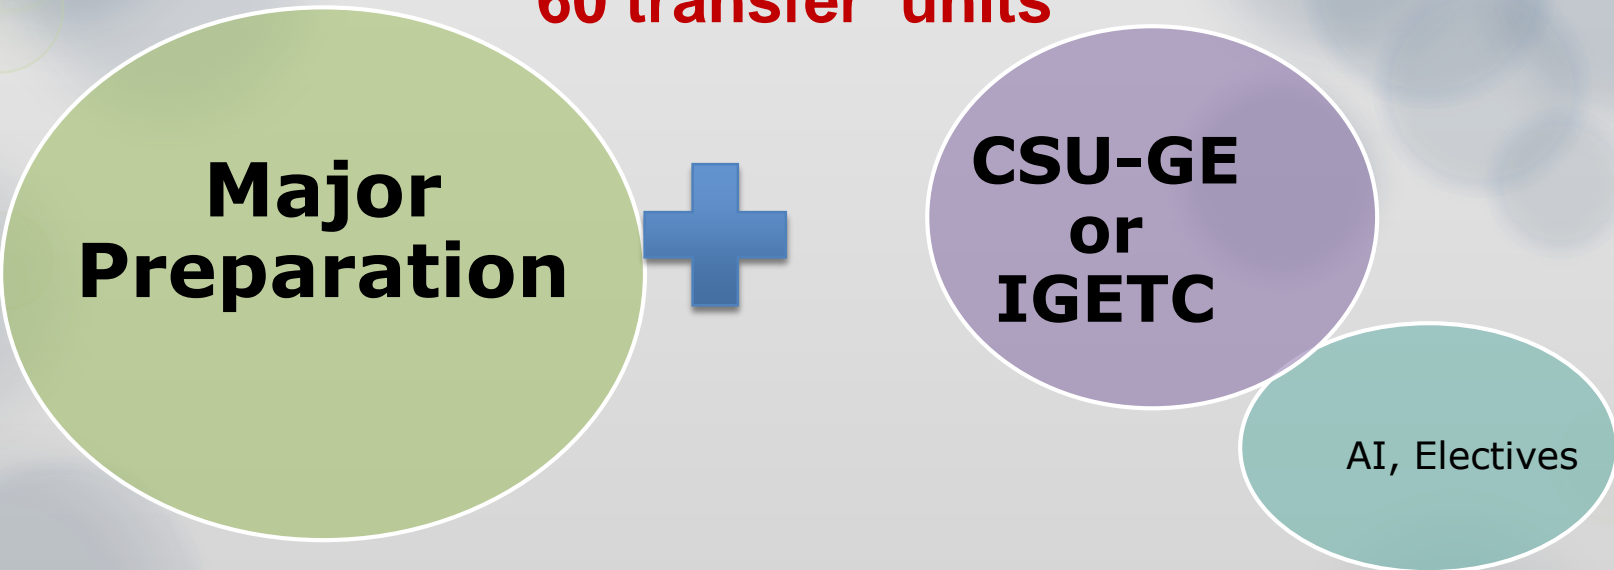

- Unit requirements for each major is different
- Local General Education and graduation requirements are the same for all majors
- 50% of major requirements must be completed at Cañada
- Complete at least 12 units at Cañada College.

Meet with a counselor to discuss your eligibility

Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT) AA-T/AS-T Degree

60 transfer units

Major Preparation

CSU-GE or IGETC

AI, Electives

- Unit requirements for each major is different
- General Education: CSU GE Breadth or IGETC
- Complete at least 12 units at Cañada College

ADT Degree vs. Local Degree

AA-T/AS-T Degrees:

Requires 60 CSU transferrable units that includes:

- CSU GE or IGETC for CSU
- Major courses
- Electives if needed

Local AA/AS degrees:

- 60 degree applicable
(majority of the courses will also transfer to CSU)
- Students must complete all the local Associate degree requirements based on the catalog rights

Case Scenario

Sally Completed 60 degree applicable units that includes Cañada College GE requirements, Ethnic Studies and Math 120.

Is she ready to transfer?

Is she eligible for an ADT?

Answer to the Case Scenario

The answer is no because she did not complete 60 Transferrable units. And it is not clear whether she completed the major requirements.

ADT does not require the local graduation requirements such as Ethnic Studies and P.E., but it requires at least 12 units to be completed at Cañada College.

What are the benefits. . .

- Priority admission to CSU campuses, private and Out of state universities
- Guarantee admission to a CSU campus
- ADT students admitted to CSU in a “similar” major will complete the BA/BS in 60 semester units
- GPA Bump for CSU campuses

Will receive an Associate Degree at the same time of completing CSU GE certification, and transfer requirements

What are the benefits? Continued ...

- Spring Admission to CSU campuses (selected campuses – see <https://www2.calstate.edu/apply> )
- Redirect to an alternate CUS Campus if not accepted to any campus of you applied
- Will facilitate the transfer process to a CSU campus that there is no major course articulated
